Under and over

Up and straight down

Up and
loop down

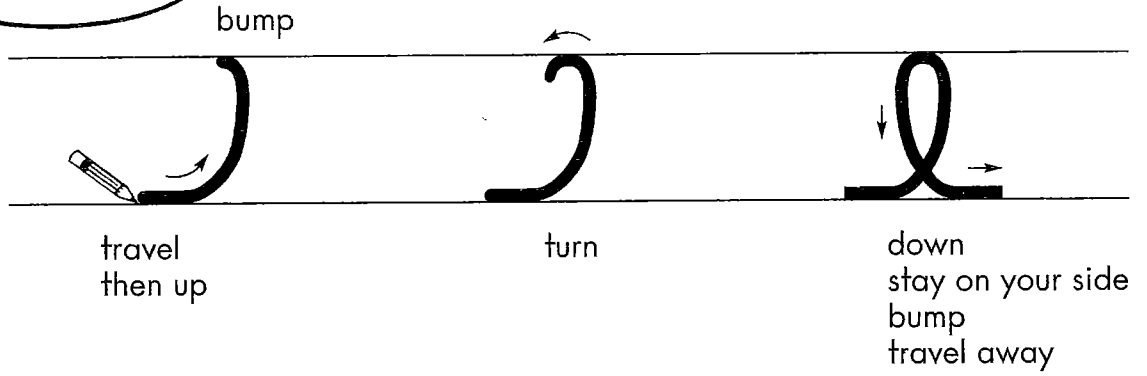

Descending loop

The handwriting practice grid consists of eight rows and four columns. Each row is defined by a top and bottom horizontal line. The first column, 'Under and over', shows a pencil icon tracing a wavy line that goes under the top line and over the bottom line, followed by two pairs of dotted lines for tracing. The second column, 'Up and straight down', shows a pencil icon tracing a vertical line that goes up from the bottom line and straight down to the top line, followed by two pairs of dotted lines. The third column, 'Up and loop down', shows a pencil icon tracing a vertical line that goes up from the bottom line, loops back to the right, and then goes down to the top line, followed by two pairs of dotted lines. The fourth column, 'Descending loop', shows a pencil icon tracing a vertical line that goes down from the top line, loops back to the right, and then goes up to the bottom line, followed by two pairs of dotted lines.
